

The Complex of Gastronomy and Food Industry Schools in Olsztyn, Poland

We are the secondary vocational school providing a wide range of educational activities aimed at assisting young people in gaining knowledge and practical skills that enable them to successfully enter the job market and obtain professional careers. The school offers education in professions that are necessary regardless of economic situation. About 40% of the graduates from The Complex of Gastronomy and Food Industry Schools continue education at Universities and the rest can relatively easily find a job both in Poland and in the European Community countries.

The School:

- Supports permanent education for adults
- Develops partnership and cooperation with local community
- Supports families in the education process
- Is a student-friendly school

The following Vocational Schools are located within the Complex:

Technical Vocational Secondary School featuring the following vocations:

- Culinary Arts for chefs
- Waiter/Waitress
- Gastronomy Service Management
- Food Technology Technician

General Vocational Secondary School

- Confectioner (young worker)
- Baker (young worker)
- Small Gastronomy Chef

Schools for Adults

- Extracurricular Technical Vocational Secondary School of Gastronomy and Food Industry
- Extracurricular Technical Vocational Secondary School of Horticulture.

The School is located in two buildings situated close to each other. The main building on Żołnierska Street 49 is the office of the Headmaster. It houses administration offices, staff room, library, gym, and classrooms. The other building on Wyszyńskiego Street houses the food technology workroom. The student population of The Complex of Gastronomy and Food Industry Schools is 707, taught by 72 well-trained teachers. Languages taught at school are: English and German.

Facilities:

- Two fully equipped gymnasiums
- 21 classrooms equipped with TV sets connected to audio-visual center
- 7 workrooms or labs where students receive hands-on-training on actual equipment used in the workplace today. (Four food technology workrooms, consumer service workroom, pastry workroom and food examination lab)
- Computer lab equipped with sixteen computers
- Audio-visual center

- Library housing a large collection of professional books, publications, newspapers, trade papers, magazines and computers with Internet connection

CONTACT:

STREET	ŻOŁNIERSKA 49
POST CODE	10-560 OLSZTYN
COUNTRY	POLAND
E-MAIL	szkola@zsgs.olsztyn.pl
PHONE NUMBER	+ 48 89 5337565
WEBSITE	www.zsgs.olsztyn.pl